- AUTHORIZED PERSON: information about the persons selected by the Customer to whom information about the Patient's state of health and testing results may be transmitted in accordance with clause 5, Part 5, Article 19 of Federal Law No. 323-FZ dated 21 November 2011 «On the Fundamentals of Public Healthcare in the Russian Federation».

- ACCEPTANCE: The agreement with the consumer and/or customer shall be considered concluded from the day the consumer and/or customer formalizes the corresponding consent (acceptance) by taking actions to fulfil the terms of the agreement, including making partial or full payment under the agreement, taking into account the provisions of Articles 16.1 and 37 of the Law of the Russian Federation «On the Protection of Consumer Rights».

When concluding the agreement, the Service Provider shall provide the consumer and/or customer with confirmation about the conclusion of said agreement.

2. The Service Provider agrees to provide, and the Customer agrees to accept and pay for, the Services in accordance with these Rules. The Services shall be rendered by the Service Provider as per Law of the Russian Federation No. 2300-1 dated 7 February 1992 «On the Protection of Consumer Rights», Resolution No. 736 of the Government of the Russian Federation dated 11 May 2023 «On the Approval of the Rules for the Provision of Paid Medical Services by Medical Institutions, Amendments to Certain Acts of the Government of the Russian Federation, and the invalidation of Resolution No. 1006 of the Government of the Russian Federation dated 4 October 2012», Federal Law No. 323-FZ dated 21 November 2011 «On the Fundamentals of Public Healthcare in the Russian Federation», and other applicable regulations and legal acts, including the Temporary Methodological Recommendations «Prevention, Diagnosis, and Treatment of COVID-19», which was approved by the Russian Ministry of Health (as amended at the time the Services are rendered).

3. The Parties to the Agreement shall observe the requirements of the effective legislation of the Russian Federation relating to public healthcare and the protection and storage of personal data.

4. The Service Provider shall:

- render the services according to the applicable procedures and standards;
- provide the ability to pay for the services via a payment system (for individuals);
- maintain the confidentiality of information about the Patient's health and the fact that the Patient requested the service, other than in cases stipulated by the legislation of the Russian Federation;
- provide information about circumstances that create difficulties in fulfilling the services within the scope of this offer for objective reasons and about the potential date on which the provision of services will be resumed;
- inform the Patient about the possibility of any side effects from the provision of the services;
- protect information constituting medical secrets;
- observe legislation on personal data and the procedure used to process it, including maintaining the confidentiality of personal data in medical information systems;
- ensure that only medicines and medical devices permitted in the Russian Federation are used when providing the services.

5. The Customer shall:

- pay for the services in full;
- fulfil and ensure fulfilment by the Patient of the Service Provider's requirements (including for collecting biological material) in a manner that ensures the proper rendering of the services, including the provision of reliable information required for this purpose (about any pre-existing diseases, counterindications, state of health, or other information that might affect the quality of the services provided), and observe the Service Provider's work regime;

- reimburse the Service Provider for any losses caused in the event the actions of the Patient or a violation by the Patient of the Service Provider's internal procedures cause damages to any of the Service Provider's property;
- perform actions that aim to achieve a due standard of healthcare or the Patient's health and not perform actions detrimental to the health of the Patient or other persons;
- behave respectfully toward other patients and medical and service personnel and observe the generally accepted rules of ethics and conduct (do not touch personnel, do not damage the Service Provider's property, do not raise their voice, do not swear, and do not come in for testing under the influence of alcohol or drugs);
- review and strictly observe these Rules.

6. The Service Provider may:

- obtain any information from the Customer and the Patient needed to fulfil its obligations to render the Services. If the Customer (Patient) fails to provide full or true information, the Service Provider may suspend the performance of its obligations until the required information is provided;
- engage third parties to fulfil its obligations, if necessary, without the additional consent of the Customer or Patient;
- refuse to render the services to the Patient should it prove impossible, including if the Patient fails to fulfil the demands of medical personnel, if the Patient is discovered to have counterindications to treatment and diagnosis, if the Patient has specific physical conditions that make intervention dangerous or ineffective, or if the Patient is under the influence of alcohol or drugs, with mandatory documentation on the refusal to provide treatment and the relevant reasons;
- maintain an archive of reports for a period determined at its own discretion;
- independently determine the duration of the period during which samples of biological material are retained;
- independently make amendments to these Rules.

7. The Customer (Patient) may:

- review the following information and documents on the Internet: the Service Provider's certificate of state registration and work regime, and other documents as per the requirements of Law of the Russian Federation No. 2300-1 dated 7 February 1992 «On the Protection of Consumer Rights» (as applicable to individuals) and Federal Law No. 323-FZ dated 21 November 2011 «On the Fundamentals of Public Healthcare in the Russian Federation»;
- submit suggestions and complaints in writing to the Service Provider, including claims relating to the scope and quality of the services provided.

8. The Customer shall make full advance payment for the services in the amount specified in the offer for each Patient. As per sub-clause 2 of clause 2 of Article 149 of the Russian Tax Code, the services rendered by the Service Provider shall not be subject to VAT.

9. The Customer shall pay for the services by bank transfer. Payment for the services by the Customer shall constitute definitive confirmation of the Customer's will to accept the terms of the Rules for Provision of the Services. After payment has been made for the services, a Customer who is an individual shall be sent a receipt confirming payment for the services as per the requirements of Federal Law No. 54-FZ dated 22 May 2003 «On the Use of Cash Registers for Settlements in the Russian Federation» to the email address specified by the Customer.

10. The Customer's obligations to pay for the services shall be deemed fulfilled when the funds are credited to the Service Provider's bank account.

11. At the request of the consumer and/or Customer, the Service Provider shall send the consumer and/or Customer a copy of the signed agreement (extract thereof), signed with an enhanced qualified electronic signature of the Service Provider's authorized person.
12. The Service Provider shall render the service at the times and on the days set by the Service Provider during the Event.
13. The Customer shall give its consent and confirm that it has the Patient's consent to the processing of the Patient's personal data by the Service Provider and third parties engaged thereby, and in cases stipulated by the effective legislation of the Russian Federation, in accordance with the requirements of Federal Law No. 152-FZ dated 27 July 2006 «On Personal Data».
14. Personal data shall be processed to render the services that fall within the purview of the Service Provider on the basis of this offer. The transfer of personal data is exclusively limited for the purposes of rendering the services. The Customer may revoke its consent to the processing of personal data by sending a relevant notice to the Service Provider in the manner prescribed by law.
15. The Customer (Patient) shall confirm his/her consent to the transfer of information about the test result in electronic format via open Internet channels and assume all the risks of unsanctioned access by third parties to the electronic device and apps used by them, and to mobile communications operators' transmission channels. The Customer (Patient) agrees to receive the test results at the email address specified when registering for the Event. The Customer shall bear all the risks and consequences related to the failure to receive, the late receipt, or possible unsanctioned access by third parties to the confidential information associated with such means of transmission.
16. When the Customer is not the Patient, the former shall confirm that it is acting in good faith and based on the instructions and with the consent of the Patient to receive the services as per the terms of the Rules and for the Customer to receive the Patient's test results. The Customer shall be liable to the Patient if it breaches the conditions and the abovementioned authorizations provided on behalf of the Patient.
17. The results of the laboratory tests (analyses) and other tests shall be regarded as confidential information constituting medical secrets. For the purposes of issuing medical documents after the agreement has been executed, the Parties shall be guided by Order No. 789n of the Russian Ministry of Health dated 31 July 2020.
18. The sending of the Patient's test results to the Customer shall constitute confirmation that the Service Provider has rendered the services and is equivalent to the Parties signing a statement of services rendered.
19. The Parties shall permit the use of digital signatures during the execution of the offer and other legally significant actions relating to the offer, and recognize electronic documents established by this offer bearing a digital signature as equivalent to hard copy documents signed by hand.
20. The Parties shall bear liability to the extent and in the manner prescribed by the effective legislation of the Russian Federation. All claims by the Customer, the Patient, or a legal representative of the Patient concerning the services shall be resolved as per the effective legislation of the Russian Federation.
21. Any issues that are not regulated by this Offer or the Rules, or have not been fully resolved, shall be regulated in accordance with the legislation of the Russian Federation.
22. The Customer's refusal of the services on the terms of these Rules or failure to pay for the services prior to the provision of the services shall mean that the Customer does not accept the Rules.
